

QNDE WWC-6

This six-station stand-alone water washable compact liquid penetrant line by Quality NDE is designed for small batches and low volume inspection of small to medium sized parts.

Options:

Dynamic cloud developer upgrade kit (includes pressurized powder container with ON/OFF footswitch, air regulator with gauge, and HEPA certified dust collector.

OR

Swirl cloud developer upgrade kit (includes manifold, ON/OFF footswitch, air regulator with gauge, and HEPA certified dust collector.

Lid for penetrant tank.

Mixing valve with temperature gauge and pressure regulator mounted on back wall.

Portable REL Magnum GO LED UV and white light lamp (UV3000) with articulated support for handheld UV lamp.

Standard model includes:

304 stainless tank on steel frame. Working height at 38".

Stations 1 and 2: Penetrant dip tank. 12-7/8"x16". 10 gal (37.9L) capacity. 1" drain underneath.

Station 3: Rinse tank with hand hose and spray nozzle. 16" backing and sides with a 12-7/8"x27-5/8"x16", 10gal (37.9L) capacity. 1" drain underneath.

Station 4: Electronically heated, thermostat controlled dryer. Black front curtain, fire resistant and penetrant resistant. Made of 304 stainless. 12-7/8"x27-5/8"x16".

Station 5: Developer tank. Made of 304 stainless. Aluminium grille to support parts inside. Includes stainless top lid.

Station 6: Standalone inspection table with curtains, cantilever roof with fan and white LED overhead light. Portable UV-3000 LED UV light on articulated support, black polypropylene top. 30"x22"x(+24" overhead - top at 84").

Delivered with manual and electronic drawings. 1 year warranty.

Quality NDE offers liquid penetrant lines just like this WWC-6 in both standard and custom forms to fit your specific requirements. Visit our website for other liquid penetrant lines with more stations and options.